

Environmental Staff Scientist

Location: Rosenberg, Fort Bend County, Texas Area

Job Status: Full-Time

Salary: Based upon experience

Experience required: 7-10 years' experience

Application Deadline: Immediate opening

CRG Texas Environmental Services, well established environmental consulting firm in Rosenberg, TX is seeking a detail oriented, experienced, and highly motivated environmental professional to conduct environmental assessments, investigations, and agency reporting projects as programs listed below:

- Texas Commission on Environmental Quality (TCEQ) Programs: Leaking Petroleum Storage Tank (LPST), Texas Risk Reduction (TRRP), Voluntary Cleanup (VCP).
- Rail Road Commission of Texas (RRCTX) Rules 8, 20, and 91: Operator Cleanup (OCP), Voluntary Cleanup (VCP), Enforcement Action Cleanup sites.

Roles and Responsibilities:

Preparing technical documents including proposals, estimates, cost proposal preparation reports and regulatory agency correspondence and reporting to support existing clients and project portfolios and expand our service offering.

Task also include field work, report review, mentor, supervise, and oversee staff environmental scientist and technician, work plan, project management, clients service, and administrative duties

Experience:

Soil and groundwater assessment, environmental site assessments, storm water compliance inspections, monitoring, management, peer mentoring expert and be a "doer-seller".

Previous corrective action, construction, remediation project experience is a plus.

Requirements and Skills:

- 7+ years of experience in environmental consulting is required.
- Bachelor's degree in Environmental Science, Geology Biology, Ecology or a related science.

- Ability to travel out of town.
- Intermediate to advanced skills using the Microsoft Office Suite.
- Attention to detail, note taking skills.
- Possess strong writing skills.
- Ability to work on a team and build networks across estate.
- Flexible work schedule to ensure project timelines are completed.
- Applicants must pass a pre-employment drug test and a criminal background check.
- All candidates must possess a valid driver's license and have a good driving record.
- Some overnight travel on short notice may be require.
- The individual must be physically fit to carry out field work assignments.

Benefits:

We offer competitive salaries, most major holidays and personal time off.
Medical, dental, and vision insurance benefits.

CRG Texas is an equal opportunity employer.

How to apply:

If you wish to be considered for this opportunity, please send a cover letter and a copy of a current resume to info@crgtexas.com